Wrap-up— America's Expo for Skin Care & Spa

The third annual America's Expo for Skin Care & Spa, June 4-6 at Navy Pier in Chicago, posted excellent results, with attendance up 20%, exhibitors up 10% and education up a whopping 110% from last year. At the daylong educational program on June 4 speakers addressed issues like business development, communication skills and how to streamline sales.

Two "Ask the Experts" panels featured industry leaders sharing expertise on antiaging treatments, medical spa practices, light therapy, in-salon services and many other subjects.

Educational workshops featured lectures and hands-on demonstrations in topics such as holistic nutrition and wellness; business and marketing; and medical spa trends and cross-cultural influences. Companies shared information via Manufacturer Classrooms, and the exhibit hall featured the latest products for spas and salons. The next expo is scheduled for May 19-21, 2006. For more info call 312/321-6809 or visit www.americasexpo.com.
